We are excited to announce the election of Amanda J. Penick to the Firm's partnership, effective January 1, 2018.

Amanda is a member of the Firm's Real Estate and Media & Marketing Groups.

Amanda's real estate practice focuses on assisting clients with the acquisition, sale, and leasing of real property. She has extensive experience negotiating and drafting purchase contracts, leases, easements, title cure documents, and a variety of other instruments connected with the transfer and use of commercial real estate. She also advises clients in all aspects of real estate due diligence, including title and survey review, site plan approval, and use and development considerations.

In her corporate practice, Amanda counsels clients, including large public and private companies, start-ups, and financial institutions, on general legal matters, including commercial and intellectual property law. She regularly advises clients on intellectual property matters, including strategy, portfolio management, licensing and monetization, vetting, and protection for trademark and copyright assets.

Amanda received her undergraduate degree in English Literature from Hanover College, and JD from the University of Cincinnati College of Law. She is admitted to practice law in Ohio and New York.

Amanda was recently named to the Board of Directors of Cincinnati Youth Collaborative and serves on committees with the St. Joseph Home and YWCA. She was recognized as a YWCA Rising Star in 2013, a Great Leader Under 40 by Venue Magazine in 2017, and a Super Lawyers Rising Star in 2018.
