AREAS OF PRACTICE

Kyle is a paralegal in both the Firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Client Service Department and the Firm's Business and Financial Client Service Department. He has ten years experience as a litigation paralegal where he assists attorneys with investigation, discovery and preparation for arbitrations, mediations and trials. As a corporate paralegal, he assists attorneys with drafting and filing of UCC filings, handles UCC and lien searches, drafting and filing of corporate documents and the creation and maintenance of corporate minute books.

Prior to joining Graydon Head, Kyle was a Litigation paralegal for two downtown Cincinnati law firms. He also worked in the legal department of a company located in Blue Ash, Ohio.

Kyle was born and raised in Southeast Indiana and currently resides there with his wife.
