Laura is a member of the Firm's Corporate Counsel Group, practicing primarily in the area of local governance. Having earned her political science degree from The Ohio State University, Laura has long had an interest in politics and government. Laura's experience involves advising municipal clients on Public Records Requests, the Open Meetings Act, and zoning law. Beyond her work with local governments, Laura's practice also touches corporate and real estate law. Laura assists corporate clients by reviewing and revising lease agreements, drafting operating agreements and resolutions, and developing strategic plans to assist clients achieve their goals.

Prior to entering law school, Laura was a student-athlete at Ohio State, competing on the women's varsity field hockey team. Laura received her law degree from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law in 2016. During law school, Laura had unique employment opportunities that allowed her to combine her passion for athletics and the law.

Laura gained experience in the sports industry when she had the opportunity to work as an intern in the Legal Department for Minnesota Vikings Football, LLC in Eden Prairie, Minnesota. While with the Minnesota Vikings, Laura reviewed sponsorship agreements, drafted memoranda on innovative business solutions and marketing strategies, and corresponded with vendors to execute contracts. In addition, Laura served as an intern in the Compliance Office for Villanova University's Athletics Department, reviewing NCAA Bylaws, and assisting coaches and players alike with compliance issues.

Laura has strong Cincinnati roots, and strives to be an active member of the local community. Outside of her legal practice, Laura is the head coach for the varsity field hockey team at her alma mater, Saint Ursula Academy in East Walnut Hills.
