David is a member of the Employee Benefits Practice Group, focusing primarily on employee benefits, ERISA litigation and dispute resolution. While in law school, David served as law clerk for the Montgomery County Common Pleas Court and completed an externship with the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio at Dayton. After law school, David deployed as an officer in the Ohio Army National Guard and earned the Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal.

David is a 2004 graduate of The Ohio State University and 2008 graduate of the University of Dayton School of Law, where he earned his J.D. He earned a Law Dean's Scholarship and was awarded the CALI Excellence for the Future Award for high class grade in Family Law. In 2014, David was selected to the Ohio Rising Stars list for his work in Litigation and again in 2015 and 2017 for his work in Employee Benefits. He came to Graydon from an employee benefits firm in the Dayton area.

David is originally from Northeastern Ohio and currently resides in West Chester with his wife Shelley and their children, Caroline and William.
