Kara devotes her practice to assisting national financial services institutions in litigation relating to all aspects of mortgage loan origination and servicing, including defending the following claims: the Truth-in-Lending Act, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, the Ohio Consumer Sales Practices Act, and The Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. Kara has also successfully litigated title insurance bad faith claims on behalf of financial institutions. Kara understands the challenges and opportunities facing the financial services industry and provides effective, efficient, and reasoned advocacy for her clients.

Kara has also represented clients in a variety of complex business disputes, including unfair competition claims.

Kara has a strong work ethic and is committed to client service. She makes it a priority to provide regular, prompt communication with clients and co-workers.

Throughout her career, Kara has been active in the community and is particularly engrained in the West Chester/Liberty community. She serves on the Board for Reach Out Lakota and Junior Achievement Butler/Warren Counties. Kara was recently named the A. Christian Worrell Emerging Leader by the West Chester Liberty Chamber Alliance. She is also the Chair of the Junior Achievement Butler and Warren Counties Guns & Grapes event, which is a sporting clay tournament supporting Junior Achievement. Kara is also a Past President for the John W. Peck Cincinnati-Northern Kentucky Chapter of the Federal Bar Association.

Kara resides in Liberty Township with her husband, Mike, and daughters, Olivia and Kennedy. Outside of work, Kara enjoys spending time with family and friends, checking out craft breweries and restaurants, cooking, running and occasionally shooting sporting clays.
