Dan is a veteran in the economic development community with a proven track record of driving business growth. Coupling over 34 years of experience with an extensive network of working relationships with business and community leaders, Dan coordinates the efforts of a team of attorneys at Graydon that offers extensive economic development services ranging from site selection to organization planning to incentives, all designed to provide development solutions for both private sector and public sector clients. Since 3Q 2019, Graydon Economic Development Services has assisted three companies secure over $1.4M in grants/tax credits for new and expanding projects and is working on multiple new industrial, commercial and multi-family real estate development projects within the Cincinnati region and in the Midwest.

Prior to leading Graydon's Economic Development Services team, Dan was President & CEO of Northern Kentucky Tri-ED, the primary economic development entity for Boone, Kenton, and Campbell counties in the Cincinnati metro market. During his tenure, more than 660 primary industry projects located, started or expanded in Northern Kentucky, creating more than 64,000 new jobs and investing more than $8.2 billion in the region. His leadership was integral to the attraction or expansion of many high-profile businesses to the region, including Fidelity Investments, Safran Landing Systems, Amazon Prime Air, Ashland, CTI Clinical Trials & Consulting Services, Citi, Mazak, DHL, FedEx Ground, General Cable, Toyota, AquiSense Technologies, LaFarge and Bexion Pharmaceuticals, among others. In 2017, the organization landed more capital investment than any other year in its 30-year history.

Dan's contributions to regional development have not gone unnoticed. He's received various awards throughout his career and most recently in 2019 was inducted into the Northern Kentucky Business Hall of Fame and received the prestigious Wm. T. (Bill) Robinson III Economic Development Award from the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.
