As Graydon's Chief Business Development Officer, Jim is responsible for leading, establishing the direction of, and overseeing the Business Development and Marketing function of the Firm. Jim has been affiliated with Graydon since 2005, but also draws from experience in the A/E/C and government industries.

Jim is an alumnus of Xavier University, an avid supporter of Xavier basketball, and has served as a mentor in the University's Mentor Program. He also served the Legal Marketing Association as the Midwest Region - Ohio Leadership Steering Committee Co-Chair/Secretary.

When not spending time with his wife, Sarah, and three sons, Jim can be found on an area golf course or singing Irish ditties throughout the community with the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.
