AREAS OF PRACTICE

Real Estate

Theresa practices in the area of real estate law and is a member of the firm's Commercial Real Estate practice group. She primarily assists clients with office and retail leases, commercial acquisitions and dispositions, and any issue that might arise related to the use of commercial real estate.

Prior to joining Graydon, Theresa served as an active duty officer with the United States Air Force's Judge Advocate General Corps. In this role, she served as a prosecuting attorney against crimes committed by service members, as well as, a general counsel to the military base commanders and supporting agencies. She was stationed at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington and Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. She currently serves as a member of the Air Force Reserve Command and is assigned to Joint Base Andrews.

After completing her undergraduate studies at Ohio State, Theresa traveled the country as a brand ambassador and spokesperson for the Oscar Mayer Wienermobile. She then returned to her hometown of Cincinnati to attend law school.

Theresa currently lives with her husband Peter in Terrace Park.
