Brenon's practice centers around estate planning. He knows that the topic can be morbid and intimidating for many individuals and families, so he brings a compassionate approach when meeting with clients, striving to bring peace of mind and a sense of security to the clients he serves.

Growing up playing sports, Brenon understands what it means to be a part of a team; from MVP seasons as the quarterback of his peewee teams to pitching for the local Thomas More College Saints. He wants each family he serves to feel as if they are a part of his team when putting together their estate plan. He works with clients to develop a deep understanding of their goals, and understands that each family has unique goals they seek to accomplish, as there is no one-size-fits-all plan.

Brenon strives to ensure every concern is alleviated; from intricate tax issues to the distribution of family heirlooms, his comprehensive approach is what ensures a smooth transition upon passing.
