Laura is a member of the Firm's Labor & Employment Group, practicing primarily in litigation and advice and counsel. Laura defends clients against a variety of government agencies such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA), U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), and the Office of Civil Rights (OCR). She works daily with businesses to provide advice regarding hiring, termination, severance, and accommodations, as well as ensure compliance with local and federal laws.

Laura recently graduated from the University of Cincinnati College of Law where she served on the Moot Court Honor Board, Co-chaired the nation's only national products liability moot court competition, the University of Cincinnati College of Law Honor Council, and the Immigration and Human Rights Law Review. Laura served as an intern for the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio for Judge Karen Litkovitz. Laura also worked for the Ohio Innocence Project as a fellow where she investigated claims of actual innocence.

Prior to law school, Laura was the Executive Director of a nonprofit squash academy in Fairfax, Ohio. She received her Bachelor of Science with a minor in business from Cornell University, where she competed in Division I athletics on the Women's Varsity Squash team.

Laura lives in Hyde Park with her rescue dog Leonidas the King. Outside of Graydon, Laura loves traveling with her family and has recently visited Patagonia and Portugal.
